Civil Action No.: '11CV0912 AJB BGS

CLASS ACTION COMPLAINT

JURY TRIAL DEMANDED

1 Plaintiff JOSHUA SANDOVAL, individually, and on behalf of all others similarly situated
 2 (“Plaintiff”), alleges upon knowledge with respect to himself and upon information and belief based,
 3 in part, on the investigation of counsel, as follows:

4 I. PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

5 1. Plaintiff brings this action, individually and on behalf of all others similarly situated,
 6 against Defendants (as defined in ¶12, infra) alleging violations of 15 U.S.C. § 1693 et seq.,
 7 commonly known as the Electronic Fund Transfer Act (the “Act”), and 12 C.F.R. § 205 et seq., 8 commonly known as Regulation E (“Regulation E”), which contains regulations promulgated by the 9 Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System to implement the Act (the Act and Regulation E 10 shall hereinafter be collectively referred to as the “EFTA”).

11 2. The EFTA establishes the basic rights, liabilities, and responsibilities of consumers 12 who use electronic fund transfer services and of financial institutions that offer these services. The 13 primary objective of the EFTA and Regulation E is the protection of consumers engaging in 14 electronic fund transfers. 12 C.F.R. § 205.1(b). The EFTA requires specific disclosures be given by 15 operators of any automated teller machine (“ATM”) to users of an ATM, prior to the imposition of a 16 fee for using an ATM. 15 U.S.C. § 1693b.

17 3. The Congressional findings and declaration of purpose regarding the EFTA provides:

18 (a) Rights and liabilities undefined

19 The Congress finds that the use of electronic systems to transfer funds provides the 20 potential for substantial benefits to consumers. However, due to unique 21 characteristics of such systems, the application of existing consumer protection legislation is unclear, leaving the rights and liabilities of consumers, financial institutions and intermediaries in electronic fund transfers undefined.

22 (b) Purposes

23 It is the purpose of this subchapter to provide a basic framework establishing the 24 rights, liabilities, and responsibilities of participants in electronic fund transfer 25 systems. The primary objective of this subchapter, however, is the provision of individual consumer rights

26 4. The EFTA specifically requires that an ATM must have a posted notice attached on 27 or at the machine informing consumers of the imposition of an ATM surcharge. 15 U.S.C. § 28 1693b(d)(3).

fictitiously named defendants is responsible in some manner for the conduct alleged herein and for the injuries suffered by Plaintiff and the proposed class as a result of defendants' wanton and illegal conduct.

12. ATM Systems Corp., and Does 1 through 10, inclusive, are collectively hereinafter referred to as "Defendants."

IV. BACKGROUND

A. Electronic Funds Transfer Act

13. "Electronic funds transfer" is defined as "any transfer of funds . . . which is initiated through an electronic terminal, telephonic instrument, or computer or magnetic tape so as to order, instruct, or authorize a financial institution to debit or credit an account. Such term includes . . . automated teller machine transactions" 15 U.S.C. § 1693a(6); see also 12 C.F.R. § 205.3(b).

14. Defendants are an "automated teller machine operator" as that term is defined by 12 C.F.R. § 205.16(a), which states: "Automated teller machine operator means any person that operates an automated teller machine at which a consumer initiates an electronic fund transfer or a balance inquiry and that does not hold the account to or from which the transfer is made, or about which an inquiry is made."

15. 15 U.S.C. § 1693b(d)(3)(A) and (B), and the implementing regulation, 12 C.F.R. § 205.16(b) and (c), require an ATM operator who imposes a fee on a consumer for "host transfer services" (an electronic fund transfer or a balance inquiry) to provide notice to the consumer of the fee before the consumer is committed to the transaction. Specifically, 12 C.F.R. § 205.16(b) states:

General. An automated teller machine operator that imposes a fee on a consumer for initiating an electronic fund transfer or a balance inquiry shall:

(1) Provide notice that a fee will be imposed for providing electronic fund transfer services or a balance inquiry; and

(2) Disclose the amount of the fee.

16. 15 U.S.C. § 1693b(d)(3)(B), and its implementing regulation, 12 C.F.R. § 205.16(c), specifies the notice to be provided to consumers. 12 C.F.R. § 205.16(c) states:

1 (c) Notice requirement. To meet the requirements of paragraph (b) of 2 this section, an automated teller machine operator must comply with the following:

3 (1) On the machine. Post in a prominent and conspicuous 4 location on or at the automated teller machine a notice that:

5 (i) A fee will be imposed for providing electronic fund transfer services or for a balance inquiry; or

6 (ii) A fee may be imposed for providing electronic fund 7 transfer services or for a balance inquiry, but the notice in this paragraph (c)(1)(ii) may be substituted for the notice in 8 paragraph (c)(1)(i) only if there are circumstances under which a fee will not be imposed for such services; and 9 (2) Screen or paper notice. Provide the notice required by 10 paragraphs (b)(1) and (b)(2) of this section either by showing it on the screen of the automated teller machine or by providing it on paper, 11 before the consumer is committed to paying a fee.

12 17. Pursuant to this regulation, the notice physically attached to the ATM must comply
 13 with 12 C.F.R. § 205.16(c), either by stating that a fee will be imposed, or if there are circumstances 14 in which a fee will not be imposed, that a fee may be imposed.

15 18. 15 U.S.C. § 1693b(d)(3)(C), and its implementing regulation, 12 C.F.R. § 205.16(e), 16 provide that no fee may be imposed by an ATM operating in connection with any electronic fund
 17 transfer initiated by a consumer for which a notice is required unless the consumer is provided the 18 notices required pursuant to 12 C.F.R. § 205.16(c). Specifically, 15 U.S.C. § 1693b(d)(3)(C) states 19 in relevant part:

20 (C) Prohibition on fees not properly disclosed and explicitly 21 assumed by consumer. No fee may be imposed by any automated
 22 teller machine operator in connection with any electronic fund 23 transfer initiated by a consumer for which a notice is required under subparagraph (A), unless – (i) the consumer receives such notice in 24 accordance with subparagraph (B); and (ii) the consumer elects to continue in the manner necessary to effect the transaction after receiving such notice.

25 Similarly, 12 C.F.R. § 205.16(e) provides that:

26 (e) Imposition of fee. An automated teller machine operator may 27 impose a fee on a consumer for initiating an electronic fund transfer or a balance inquiry only if

1 (1) The consumer is provided the notices required under paragraph 2 (c) of this section, and

3 (2) The consumer elects to continue the transaction or inquiry after 4 receiving such notices.

5 19. In connection with 2006 amendments to the EFTA, the Board of Governors of the 6 Federal Reserve published its Final Rule and official staff interpretation which, inter alia, explained
 7 the EFTA's disclosure requirements as follows:

8 The final rule clarifies the two-part disclosure scheme established in Section 9 904(d)(3)(B) of the EFTA. The first disclosure, on ATM signage posted on or at 10 the ATM, allows consumers to identify quickly ATMs that generally charge a fee
 11 for use. This disclosure is not intended to provide a complete disclosure of the fees 12 associated with the particular type of transaction the consumer seeks to conduct.
 13 Until a consumer uses his or her card at an ATM, the ATM operator does not know 14 whether a surcharge will be imposed for that particular consumer. Rather, it is the 15 second, more specific disclosure, made either on the ATM screen or an ATM receipt, 16 that informs the customer before he or she is committed to the transactions whether,
 17 in fact, a fee will be imposed for the transaction and the amount of the fee....

18 71 F.R. 1638, 1656 (emphasis added).

19 20. Thus, the statute and regulation require that a physical notice must be displayed
 20 informing consumers that the ATM imposes a surcharge, and that the ATM screen must definitively 21 state that a fee will be imposed, before that fee is imposed.

22 21. The EFTA imposes strict liability upon ATM operators that fail to comply with its 23 disclosure requirements. See Burns v. First American Bank, 2006 WL 3754820, *6 (N.D. Ill. Dec.
 24 19, 2006). A plaintiff seeking statutory damages under the EFTA need not prove that he or she 25 sustained any actual financial loss, or that he or she relied upon the lack of mandatory disclosure as 26 an inducement to enter into a transaction. Burns, 2006 WL 3754820, *6 (“Section 1693b(d)(3)
 27 prohibits an ATM operator from charging a fee unless it provides notice of its fee on the machine
 28 and on the screen, period, no mention of a necessary scienter.”)

22. The notice referenced in 15 U.S.C. § 1693f has no arguable applicability to Plaintiff's claims because, among other things, Plaintiff is not an account holder of Defendants.

26 B. Defendants' Conduct

27 23. Defendants are ATM operators regulated under the EFTA, 15 U.S.C. § 1693 et seq.
 28 and 12 C.F.R. Part 205 (Regulation E), as that term is defined in 12 C.F.R. § 205.16(a).

24. Defendants are operators of the Torrey Pines Golf Course ATM located at or about 11840 N. Torrey Pines Rd., La Jolla, California 92037.

25. Defendants are owners of the Torrey Pines Golf Course ATM located at or about 11840 N. Torrey Pines Rd., La Jolla, California 92037.

26. The Torrey Pines Golf Course ATM permits consumers to perform electronic fund transfers, as defined in 12 C.F.R. § 205.3.

27. The Torrey Pines Golf Course ATM imposes a fee on consumers who withdraw cash from the Torrey Pines Golf Course ATM.

28. Defendants failed to post on or at the Torrey Pines Golf Course ATM a notice that a fee will be imposed for withdrawing cash or for a balance inquiry, resulting in Defendants' improper imposition of a fee to Plaintiff and other users of the Torrey Pines Golf Course ATM.

29. Defendants' failure to post the required notice on or at the Torrey Pines Golf Course ATM has resulted in frequent and persistent non-compliance with the EFTA. Said violations of the EFTA have adversely affected hundreds or thousands of consumers.

30. Despite knowing of the ATM fee notice provisions of the EFTA, Defendants have violated the EFTA by failing to post the required ATM fee notice at the Torrey Pines Golf Course ATM and improperly imposing ATM fees.

31. Defendants' non-compliance with the ATM fee notice requirements of the EFTA, and subsequent imposition of a fee on Plaintiff and the members of the proposed class, did not result from a bona fide error.

C. Plaintiff's Electronic Funds Transfers With Defendants

32. Plaintiff is a consumer as defined in 12 C.F.R. § 205.2(e).

33. Within one year of the filing of this Complaint, Plaintiff used the Torrey Pines Golf Course ATM described in this Complaint in order to conduct an electronic funds transfer involving the withdrawal of cash.

34. The Torrey Pines Golf Course ATM did not have the fee notice required by 15 U.S.C. § 1693b(d)(3) and 12 C.F.R. § 205.16, as it did not have any sign affixed to it or in close proximity

1 to it informing consumers that use of the Torrey Pines Golf Course ATM will or may result in an
2 ATM surcharge.

3 35. Plaintiff was in fact assessed a $3.00 ATM surcharge fee for withdrawing cash from 4 the Torrey Pines Golf Course ATM described in this Complaint.

5 V. CLASS ALLEGATIONS

6 36. Plaintiff brings this class action on behalf of himself and all other similarly situated 7 persons pursuant to Rule 23(a), (b)(1), (b)(3) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. Plaintiff
8 hereinafter sets forth facts and allegations more specifically in support of his class action allegations.

9 37. Plaintiff seeks to represent a class of similarly situated persons, consisting of (a) all
10 consumers (b) who initiated an electronic funds transfer at the Torrey Pines Golf Course ATM
11 described in ¶9, supra, and (c) were assessed a fee for withdrawing cash from the Torrey Pines Golf
12 Course ATM described in ¶9, supra, (d) on or after the date one year prior to the filing of this action
13 and continuing through the trial of this cause or until Defendants are compliant with the EFTA by 14 posting the appropriate notice (the “Class”).

15 38. Congress expressly intended that the EFTA would be enforced, in part, through 16 private class actions. 15 U.S.C. § 1693m(a).

17 39. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that there are at minimum, 18 hundreds of members of the Class.

19 40. The exact size of the Class and the identities of the individual members thereof are 20 ascertainable through Defendants’ records. Defendants have exclusive control of this information.

21 41. Members of the Class may be notified of the pendency of this action by techniques
22 and forms commonly used in class actions, such as by published notice, e-mail notice, website
23 notices, first class mail, or combinations thereof, or by other methods suitable to this Class and 24 deemed necessary and/or appropriate by this Court.

25 42. Defendants can generate data for its Torrey Pines Golf Course ATM identifying each 26 transaction in which a fee was charged. The data will include the date of the transaction, the amount 27 of the fee and the personal account number (“PAN”) for the consumer. The PAN includes a bank 28 identification number (“BIN”). This information can be used to identify members of the Class.

1 43. The Class is sufficiently numerous to make bringing all parties before the Court
2 impractical pursuant to Rule 23(a)(1) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

3 44. Plaintiff's claims are typical of the claims of the members of the Class. The claims of 4 the Plaintiff and members of the Class are based on the same legal theories and arise from the same
5 unlawful conduct. Plaintiff and Class members seek recovery of statutory, not actual, damages.

6 45. Plaintiff and members of the Class were each users of the Torrey Pines Golf Course
7 ATM since the date one year prior to the filing of this action.

8 46. Plaintiff and each member of the Class were illegally charged an ATM fee as a result
9 of Defendants' failure to comply with the ATM fee notice requirements of the EFTA, thereby 10 resulting in common questions of law and fact pursuant to Rule 23(a)(2) of the Federal Rules of 11 Civil Procedure.

12 47. Plaintiff and each member of the Class received an inadequate notice regarding the 13 imposition of an ATM fee by the Torrey Pines Golf Course ATM.

14 48. The questions of law and fact common to the Class predominate over questions which 15 may affect individual members, including:

- 16 (a) Whether Defendants were at all relevant times during the class period 17 automated teller machine operators which imposed a fee on consumers for providing host transfer services to those consumers;
- 18 (b) Whether Defendants are the operators of the Torrey Pines Golf Course ATM;
- 19 (c) Whether Defendants complied, at all times during the class period, with the 20 notice requirements of 15 U.S.C. § 1693b(d)(3) and 12 C.F.R. § 205.16; and
- 21 (d) Whether Plaintiff and members of the Class are entitled to statutory damages, costs and attorney's fees for Defendants' acts and conduct.

22 49. Plaintiff can and will adequately and vigorously represent and protect the interests of 23 the members of the Class. Plaintiff has no interests antagonistic to the members of the Class.
24 Plaintiff has retained counsel able, competent and qualified to prosecute this class action litigation as 25 set forth in Rule 23(a)(4) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

26 50. Plaintiff and Plaintiff's counsel will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the 27 Class.

28 ///

51. In support of Plaintiff's allegations pursuant to Rule 23(b)(3) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, the Plaintiff avers that a class action is superior to other available means for the fair and efficient adjudication of the claims of the Class. While the aggregate damages that may be awarded to the members of the Class are likely to be substantial, the damages suffered by the individual members of the Class are relatively small. As a result, the expense and burden of individual litigation makes it economically infeasible and procedurally impracticable for each member of the Class to individually seek redress for the wrongs done to them. Plaintiff does not know of any other litigation concerning this controversy already commenced by or against any member of the Class. The likelihood of the individual members of the Class prosecuting separate claims is remote. Pursuant to Rule 23(b)(1)(A) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure individualized litigation would also present the potential for varying, inconsistent, or contradictory judgments, and would increase the delay and expense to all parties and the court system resulting from multiple trials of the same factual issues. In contrast, the conduct of this matter as a class action presents fewer management difficulties, conserves the resources of the parties and the court system, and would protect the rights of each member of the Class. Plaintiff knows of no difficulty to be encountered in the management of this action that would preclude its maintenance as a class action.

VI. CLAIMS

COUNT I

Against All Defendants for Violation of 15 U.S.C. § 1693 et seq. and 12 C.F.R. 205 et seq.

52. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and realleges each and every allegation contained above, as though fully set forth herein.

53. Plaintiff asserts this claim on behalf of himself and the Class against Defendants.

54. Defendants failed to provide notices to the Plaintiff and the Class as required by 15 U.S.C. § 1693b(d)(3) and 12 C.F.R. § 205.16(c), and imposed a fee in violation of 15 U.S.C. § 1693b(d)(3)(C) and 12 C.F.R. §§ 205.16(b) and (e).
